OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE GREAT WAR MILITARY OPERATIONS EGYPT and PALESTINE

This volume is the second dealing with British Military operations in Egypt, Palestine and Syria. The first carried the record up to June, 1917, when General Sir Edmund Allenby was appointed to the command of the Egyptian Expeditionary Force; this brings it to the conclusion of the Armistice with Turkey and completes the story.

Owing to the interest and importance of the operations in a campaign wherein mobility is the predominant factor and cavalry comes into its own, it has been decided to publish the volume in two parts, so as not to stint either the student or the general public by undue compression.

The period covered is that of the autumn offensive against the Gaza-Beersheba line, culminating in the capture of Jerusalem and Jaffa; of the spring operations in and beyond the Jordan Valley; of the re-organisation of the Force made necessary by the pressure of the German offensives in France; and of the final offensive, which resulted in the occupation of all Syria and in the destruction or capture of virtually the whole Turkish Army after one of the greatest cavalry pursuits in the history of warfare.

In two parts, 790 pages, 47 sketches, 10 illustrations.

A Scholarship is available for a boy who qualifies at an Army and Air Force Entrance Examination for admission to the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, or the Royal Air Force College, Cranwell. OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE GREAT WAR

MILITARY OPERATIONS EGYPT and PALESTINE

This volume is the second dealing with British Military operations in Egypt, Palestine and Syria. The first carried the record up to June, 1917, when General Sir Edmund Allenby was appointed to the command of the Egyptian Expeditionary Force; this brings it to the conclusion of the Armistice with Turkey and completes the story.

Owing to the interest and importance of the operations in a campaign wherein mobility is the predominant factor and cavalry comes into its own, it has been decided to publish the volume in two parts, so as not to stint either the student or the general public by undue compression.

The period covered is that of the autumn offensive against the Gaza-Beersheba line, culminating in the capture of Jerusalem and Jaffa; of the spring operations in and beyond the Jordan Valley: of the re-organisation of the Force made necessary by the pressure of the German offensives in France; and of the final offensive, which resulted in the occupation of all Syria and in the destruction or capture of virtually the whole Turkish Army after one of the greatest cavalry pursuits in the history of warfare.

In two parts, 790 pages, 47 sketches, 10 illustrations.

ARMY, NAVY, MARINES AND AIR FORCE PROVIDENT SOCIETY.

This Society affords to Officers a means whereby they may, at a minimum cost, provide annuities for their widows (or their children when eligible, if their wives predecease them) which may prove a welcome addition to the service pensions.

Officers of the Army, under 50 years of age, may take up one, two, three or four memberships: the annual contribution for each membership being £1 10s. plus a disparity fee of 2s. 6d. for each year that the wife is younger than the member.

If the member dies before six years of membership have been completed, the whole of the contributions are refunded to his widow. If six years of membership have been completed the widow receives an annuity, the amount of which depends upon the number of years of completed membership.

Full particulars with application form may be obtained from the Secretary :—

CHARITY OF WILLIAM KINLOCH

Administered by the Scottish Hospital of the foundation of King Charles II.

Candidates for the benefits of the Charity must be Scotsmen who have served in the Navy or Army, who have become disabled through no fault of their own, who are in need and deserving, who are not inmates of Greenwich Hospital or Chelsea Hospital, who are not possessed of or entitled to an income from other sources amounting to or exceeding £31 10s. 0d. per annum, and who have not during the last six calendar months received Poor Law Relief other than medical relief. The funds are very small and vacancies occur only through the death of existing beneficiaries. Preference will be given to those who have been maimed or wounded in the service of their country. Application for the benefits must be made in the first place in writing to the Secretary of the Scottish Hospital, Fleur-de-lis Court, Fetter Lane, London, E.C.4. Every applicant must state his name, address, age and occupation, and the date of his entry into the Navy or Army, and the date and cause of his discharge therefrom, and must produce evidence of his qualification for the appointment.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND. BRITISH SERVICE.

This Fund enables a British Service (Army) officer, by subscribing from Rs. 6 to Rs. 10 per quarter, to assure, in the event of his death while on the Indian Establishment, immediate payment:—

To his widow	Rs. 8,775 to Rs. 12,375
For each child	„ 750 to „ 1,125

Payments are made immediately on receipt of report of death, irrespective of death occurring in or out of India.

The sum paid to the widow varies with subscription, and the sum for each child varies with age of child. Subscriptions are based on the rank of the officer.

Benefits are payable whether the deceased officer's family is residing in India or not.

It is to the advantage of an officer to join the Fund on his first tour of service in India, as otherwise, on joining it in a subsequent tour he would have to pay subscriptions for any previous tour in the country as a married officer, but not in excess of four years.

The Fund (late Queen's Military Widows' Fund) was established in 1820, to assist families of British Service (Army) officers dying in India, and mainly to enable them to return home without delay.

The Fund is controlled by a Committee consisting of and elected by subscribing officers serving at Army Headquarters, Simla.

For admission apply to:—

The Secretary,
Military Widows' Fund,
Army Headquarters, Simla.

Deputy Chairman—Major-General H. W. DUPERRIER.

Secretary and Treasurer—Brig.-Gen. D. G. PRENDERGAST, C.M.G.,
5, York Street, St. James's Square, S.W. 1.

This Home (opened in February, 1854) was founded in 1851, in memory of H.R.H. Adolphus Frederick, Duke of Cambridge, K.G., to provide a home for widows of Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Army. They are not to be under 50 years of age, but there is no restriction as to religious persuasion.

Since its opening, 463 widows have been elected. There are 70 widows in the Home, in addition to 21 widows receiving pensions. Each inmate has a furnished room, and receives twelve shillings a week and a monthly allowance for coal in addition to other amenities.

The total funded income of the Charity falls short of the estimated average annual cost by about £1,000.

The Committee make an urgent appeal for additional subscribers, as every year a considerable number are lost through death.

Most Corps, Regiments and Regimental Depots make annual subscriptions; but the Committee have also relied upon retired officers, and it is to them that a special appeal is made.

Every person subscribing half-a-guinea annually is entitled to one vote at each election, and a donation of five guineas ensures one vote at each election throughout life.

LLOYD'S PATRIOTIC FUND

LLOYD'S BUILDING, 3-6, LIME STREET, LONDON, E.C.3.

ESTABLISHED 1803.

This Fund is administered by Trustees under a scheme approved by the Charity Commissioners, in whose name the Capital is invested.

The Trustees grant pecuniary aid to such Officers, Soldiers, Seamen and Marines, or their Widows, Orphans or Dependent Relatives, as, in the opinion of the Trustees, shall be fitting objects for such aid, having special regard to long and meritorious service, and to suffering and losses arising during active service. With the exception of the families of Naval Officers, only very few cases arising out of the Great War can be considered at present.

This fund also nominates children of such Officers and Men to Army and Navy Schools.

The balance of the Mansion House South African War Fund is also administered for the benefit of men disabled by wounds, disease or sickness in that War, discharged "medically unfit" in consequence, and unable to work on account of their disability.

Applications and enquiries should be addressed to the Secretary, who will be very pleased to receive subscriptions on behalf of this Fund. Cheques and Postal Orders should be crossed "National Provincial Bank, Ltd."

Commissioners.

Chairman—THE PAYMASTER-GENERAL, and 11 others.

A candidate for registration for admission to the School must be the son of a warrant officer, non-commissioned officer or man who is serving or has served in the Regular Army, or of an officer who has been promoted from the ranks to a commission in the Regular Army. Preference in general is given to orphans, and to those whose fathers have been killed in action or have died while in the Service or after leaving the Service. Those selected by the Board of Commissioners are admitted between the ages of nine and eleven years, provided they reach the required medical and educational standards. The School's waiting list is a long one, but each application is considered on its merits, the career and character of the father while in the Service being always considered as principal recommendations.

The normal age for leaving the School is fifteen years, when boys may (a) join His Majesty's Army, (b) return to their homes or to an occupation in civil life, or (c) if recommended, continue their education in the Upper School until the age of nineteen years.

There is no obligation for boys to enter the Army from the School but those who do not intend to do so are not retained beyond the age of fifteen years. Boys who qualify for the Army second class Certificate of Education while at the School are accepted for training at the various Army Technical Schools without further examination.

Two Scholarships are available for boys who qualify at an Army Entrance Examination for admission to the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, or the Royal Military College, Sandhurst. The value of a Scholarship is sufficient to cover the whole of a boy's expenses until he enters the Army as an officer.

Further information will be given on application to the Secretary at the School.
